RAPID CITY DEMOGRAPHICS

Rapid City, the Gateway to the Black Hills, is a regional economic hub serving over 470,000 people within a 200-mile radius. With a strong, diverse economy driven by tourism, healthcare, financial call centers, and Ellsworth Air Force Base, the city offers stability and growth potential for businesses. Tourism is a key driver, attracting millions of visitors annually to nearby attractions like Mount Rushmore and the Black Hills, providing retail businesses with consistent foot traffic. The healthcare sector, anchored by Monument Health, supports a steady demand for office and medical space.

Rapid City's business-friendly environment and access to a well-educated workforce make it an ideal location for companies looking to expand or relocate. The Rapid City MSA holds #2 in the nation for unemployment rates at 1.9%. With its strategic location and thriving economy, Rapid City offers businesses the opportunity to tap into a growing market and benefit from long-term success.
