

An aerial photograph of The Steel District in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, taken at dusk. The image shows a large, modern multi-story building with a brick facade and large glass windows, which are illuminated from within. The building is surrounded by other commercial and residential structures, some of which are also lit up. In the foreground, there is a landscaped area with a paved walkway, a small gazebo, and some trees. The sky is a mix of orange and blue, indicating the time is either sunset or sunrise. A dark blue hexagonal logo with the text 'THE STEEL DISTRICT' is overlaid on the top center of the image.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

The Steel District is Sioux Falls' premier live, work, play, stay destination. Thoughtfully designed along the Big Sioux River, the development brings new energy to downtown while building upon the momentum under Sioux Falls' recognition as the #1 city for young professionals.

Anchored by its riverfront location, The Steel District combines Class A office space, main-level retail, luxury condos, a boutique hotel, and modern convention space into one connected community. The Steel District creates an unmatched, all-inclusive experience where people can connect, create, and thrive.

LLOYD LANDING

The newly built plaza is named Lloyd Landing and includes multiuse public space – a shelter for picnics or other gatherings, a multipurpose synthetic turf lawn, a small dog run, seating and a photo station. The area also has new public art and activities including outdoor fitness, food trucks and live music.

T. DENNY SANFORD SPLASH PAD

The splash pad was funded with help from T. Denny Sanford, who will donated up to $1.75 million. It is about 15 percent larger than the one recently opened at Hayward Park.

PAWSIBLE PARK

Pawsible Park at Jacobson Plaza is a large, turfed area ideal for the growing number of nearby canine neighbors. “When it comes to Sioux Falls, we’re all about what’s possible – or ‘pawsible,’ if you will,” Pat Lloyd said. “We think the name of this park builds on the inspiration of the Arc of Dreams, which symbolizes those who saw and believe in the possibilities Sioux Falls holds for all – and of course, that includes the animals we love as well.”
